CULTURAL EMPOWERMENT SERIES

Chicago Sinfonietta's Cultural Empowerment Series uses classical and contemporary music to celebrate the accomplishments of diverse artists while highlighting how we all benefit from diversity, equity, and inclusion in the arts. Through these specially designed programs we aim to elevate cultural understanding in an intimate, interactive setting while inspiring and educating participants by sharing our music, our history, and our passion for inclusion.

Chicago Sinfonietta

HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH

A Celebration of Works by Hispanic Composers

Join the nation's most diverse orchestra as we honor and reflect on the musical and cultural contributions of some of the world's most prolific composers during Chicago Sinfonietta's specially curated Hispanic Heritage Month performance and discussion.

This presentation features:

- A one-hour concert featuring classical works of composers including José Pablo Moncayo, Astor Piazzolla, Arturo Márquez, Gabriella Lena-Frank, and others
- A discussion of the music's cultural tributaries, the history of the Chicago Sinfonietta, and an interactive Q&A
- A printable program for your audience
- Complimentary tickets to an upcoming Sinfonietta concert

CLIENT TESTIMONIAL

"It was truly our pleasure to have you and the other musicians in attendance. We have received nothing but extraordinary feedback on the D & I content of the presentation which resonated with the attendees. We look forward to having Chicago Sinfonietta back soon!"

– Carlos Cubia, Walgreens
