

Chicago Sinfonietta

CULTURAL EMPOWERMENT SERIES

Chicago Sinfonietta's Cultural Empowerment Series uses classical and contemporary music to celebrate the accomplishments of diverse artists while highlighting how we all benefit from diversity, equity, and inclusion in the arts. Through these specially designed programs we aim to elevate cultural understanding in an intimate, interactive setting while inspiring and educating participants by sharing our music, our history, and our passion for inclusion.

CONTACT

Jim Hirsch

Chief Executive Officer

312.284.1553

jhirsch@chicagosinfonietta.org

SPECIAL OFFERS AVAILABLE!

CULTURAL EMPOWERMENT SERIES

Chicago Sinfonietta

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

An Inspirational Look at Gender Equity in Classical Music

Support and celebrate the women who continue to shape the musical and social landscape with an inspiring look at the composers who have championed gender representation in the concert hall and beyond.

This presentation features:

- Notable women composers such as Clara Schumann, Florence Price, Annie Lennox, Lady Gaga, and others
- A discussion of the music's cultural tributaries, the history of the Chicago Sinfonietta, and an interactive Q&A
- A printable program for your audience
- Complimentary tickets to an upcoming Sinfonietta concert

TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS

- Four armless chairs
- Stage or riser*
- Adequate lighting for reading
- Four microphones with boom stands* and one wireless handheld microphone
- Portable audio system (preferred) or installation system staffed by trained technician
- A private rehearsal space available one hour prior to presentation*

*Preferred, but not required

PRICE: $3,000

*Multi-Presentation
Discounts Available!*

